

Advanced Topics

This section covers advanced topics such as customization, scripting, and integration with other systems.

Customization

How to customize the software settings to suit your needs.

Scripting

Using scripts or macros to automate tasks.

Integration

How to integrate the software with other systems.